

“Starting Project SUCCESS is one of the most positive things that has happened in the Robinson community. It provides a means for students of varied backgrounds and needs to work side by side doing meaningful projects – and to communicate and connect as friends. Project SUCCESS has done more to promote real inclusion than any other single factor.”

Ann Monday, Director, Cluster 6
Fairfax County Public Schools

“I can honestly say that I have learned more about life through Project SUCCESS than I did in 12 years of school.”

Rita Lahlou
Westfield High School

“I have never been prouder to be part of a group; everyone here works so hard, and every time I come to Project SUCCESS, my spirits are uplifted.”

James Harris,
Robinson High School

“The skills I learned, the people I have met, the experiences will last me a lifetime. Project SUCCESS has taught me to look at someone with a disability and see them for who they are.”

Erin Adams,
Hayfield High School

“The students who come to Project SUCCESS are such an inspiration to me. Participating in this program has been the highlight of my senior year.”

Evan Moore
Robinson High School

“We don’t differentiate who is in special education and who isn’t. We are simply one team, working together, each recognizing and contributing our individual talents and skills.”

Julie Wolf
Annandale High School

"I am so grateful for the doors that Project SUCCESS has opened for me, and well as the lessons and values it has taught me. Without this program, I wouldn't be half the person I am."

Malia Phelps

Lake Braddock High School

"Project SUCCESS opened my eyes to the world of serving others, and I met some amazing people in the process. It has probably been one of the most positive additions to my life."

Stephanie Mathieu

Paul VI High School

"I now have a place to go where I can experience unconditional acceptance."

Sarah Moore

Robinson High School

"Project Success is what I want the world to be. It is acceptance, it is friendship, and it is making a difference in the world through simple acts of selflessness."

Jillian Villars

Westfield High School

"Project SUCCESS is an incredibly positive experience. My son feels welcome, and he feels good about himself when he helps other people."

Malia Anderson, parent of Jason.

"Project SUCCESS has truly changed my life. Interacting with all types of people and helping out in the community is so rewarding."

Katie Donohue

Westfield High School

"I like to serve lunch at the homeless shelter. I feel happy to help people."

Dan Hartle

Chantilly High School

“This program is an enjoyable experience for all involved, and forwards the goal of integration as we all learn from each other.”

Susan Montello, M. Ed

“I now have a new outlook on life and how little things can make such a huge difference for someone else.”

Emily Cumberland

Robinson High School

“Project SUCCESS is so inspiring. We all care so much about each other. The atmosphere here is great.”

Ashley Quammen

Woodson High School

“Wednesday is my favorite day of the week, because of Project SUCCESS. This program has changed my life so positively, and made me such a happy person.”
